

6516205950.txt

The FCC's move to stifle satellite radio is yet another reflection of the fascist attitude this institution has adopted as of late. The FCC is making a mockery of free speech and is an embarrassment to the rest of the world. We, as Americans, should be a beacon to the world for free expression, not the paradigm of regulation and repression.

Bradford Parsons

Proud and Concerned American